

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Dr. Arthur Rosenfeld will turn eighty years old on June 22, 2006; and
WHEREAS, his contributions to the fields of particle physics and energy efficiency have helped to keep California at the forefront of scientific advancement; and
WHEREAS, he has been instrumental in innovations such as the widely-utilized DOE-2 building efficiency computer program; and
WHEREAS, he has been honored with the prestigious Enrico Fermi Award for his unparalleled efforts with energy efficiency; and
WHEREAS, his decades of public service have resulted in improved energy policy for California and the entire nation; and
WHEREAS, his work sparked the global energy efficiency movement and reminds Californians to never take our resources for granted; and
WHEREAS, Dr. Rosenfeld's impressive career demonstrates a commitment to excellence in science and a sincere concern for our environment.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, do hereby proclaim April 28, 2006 as "Arthur Rosenfeld Energy Efficiency Day."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have here unto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 28th day of April 2006.

Arnold Schwarzenegger
GOVERNOR OF CALIFORNIA
Attest:

Bruce McPherson
SECRETARY OF STATE